BAD RIDING AT HARLEM.

The Harlem racing yesterday was full of surprises and complaints. The biggest surprise and most screams came through the Sunburst race. There was some reason for them. Caywood rode an awful race on him. It was almost as bad as that of Narvaez on Lorrana in the second race.

Then Paul Griggs forgot to suik and won the third. Ruskin's defeat in the closing event put the public into the doldrums.

Narvaez and Lorrana performed in the second race, a three-quarter selling affair. Dan Lamasney's filly was the natural favorite and on form seemed like a certainty. Narvaez got her away third but she fell steadily back and landed ninth. Narvaez was sharply disciplined in a verbal way by the judges.

Santa Cruz won the race in a staggering finish from Helen Wren.

Paul Griggs' sudden awakening came in the third race. Tommy Burns was up and the gray colt was backed consistently. He was away well on his stride and going to the front on the first turn led throughout and beat Boanerges, the favorite, half a length. It was reported that Paul Griggs had worked a mile around 1:41. He raced in 1:40, and ran without the blinkers he wore in his previous race.

Sunburst was the 2 to 1 favorite for the fifth race. He got off second, was taken the long route and ran a vile and sluggish race. Caywood rode Sunburst as badly as he seemed to run. Sunburst was a bad fifth, Ace winning in a gallop.

Ruskin looked like another certainty in the closing event. He was an 8 to 5 favorite. He was the best and with clear sailing could not have lost. But just as the barrier rose, Murat crossed Ruskin, causing Burns to pull up. The colt bumped his way through after that and was beaten only a neck by Wiggins, a well backed 20 to 1 chance.

Udah was a 4 to 5 favorite for the first but fell before the good-looking Coronatus.

Timemaker was in a soft spot and won his event in a gallop.

To-day the following horses will be sold in the Harlem paddock: Harry McCouch, St. Raymond, Tin Cup, Gov. Saussenthaler and Forbush.

It is said on good authority that Windsor is about to be declared an outlaw track, and various stables have been warned to move at once.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Florist, the sire of Flora Louise, was bought for a teaser by the Scoggans and cost only a trifle at a sale in Lexington. He never was given mares of quality until from common ones were produced Dunois and Flora Louise. The weanlings by this horse are now highly valued, as also a yearling full brother to Flora Louise. Florist is off the same piece as Buckden (sire of Buchanan), the grandsire being the same.

C. F. Godard, Chicago, Ill.—There is a chance that you are not representative and that your thoughts are askew, though the subject is not of any account.

Winner—B. c. by Leonatus—Coronet. Off first break. Start good. The first four were hard driven. Burns was a trifle careless on Uдах. The filly is none too stout-hearted. He should have come on about his business. Coronatus took the short route. He got a powerful finish, too. Hindoo Queen stopped and came again. Ferd Owen was evidently short. He went to pieces when the pinch came. Bob Garnet will not do at all. Ialaria was in a pocket all the way.

Scratched—Cutter, 113; Moline, 100; Spring Leaf, 108; Bob Again, 103; Waukesha, 110; Elizabeth K, 105.

Overweights—Mr. Eastin, 3 pounds.

Time, 25, 50½, 1:02½, 1:16.

Winner—Ch. g, 5, by Emperor of Norfolk—Violetta. Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving and staggering; second, third and fourth hard driven too. Helen Wren would have won in another stride. She, too, was wabbling at the finish. Donaldson got Santa Cruz off running and rode a good race on him. Lorrana ran a vile race. Narvaez's ride on her was bad and the judges called him sharply to account. Verdi, in a pocket all the way, finished strong. Galley West ran a good race considering the trouble she had. Virgie Dixon showed a flash of speed down the back stretch but faded away to nothing. Mary L was prominent for five furlongs.

Scratched—Leinad, 99; Wadena, 99; Sligo, 99.

Overweights—Lorrana, 2 pounds; Amanda, 5; Virgie Dixon, 2.

Time, 24½, 50, 1:02½, 1:15½, 1:40½.

Winner—Gr. c, 3, by Order—Lucy Lisle. Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won driving hard; second and third doing their best. Paul Griggs got away well on his stride and showed a phenomenal burst of speed. His performance was much different from his last. He is a sulker though and his fancies offer excuses for him. Boanerges had to pull up and go around his field on the turn. But for this he would have won. He was the best. Ben Waddell seemed to be running easily at the head of the stretch. He did not have class enough to win. He was lucky, too, in getting through on the first turn. Sloan took a long chance to squeeze through. Topmast dislikes a route. Rewarder is a counterfeit. Paul Pry had little or no speed. He wants a muddy track.

Scratched—Lady Cordell, 92; Ragner, 101; King Galong, 95; Winslow, 101; Lon Jones, 101; Sir Dilke, 104.

Overweights—Boanerges, 4 pounds.

Time, 24½, 36, 49½, 1:02, 1:14½, 1:27.

Winner—B. c. by Kantaka—Nellie Stanley. Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; the next three were doing their best. Time-maker was in a soft spot. He just galloped in behind Lady Callahan and came away when ready. Lady Callahan was lucky to be second. Had Ulysses not turned wide into the stretch he would have beaten her. Irene Woods made a strong bid on the turn, but weakened at the end. She is ready to win under light weight.

Overweights—Lady Callahan, 4 pounds; Irene Woods, 2.

Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving; next three same. Flop broke well and shook off Randazzo at the end, the latter tiring under the pace. Auctioneer raced well for a half mile. Arcturus came with a rush in the stretch. Tusculum might have won had he been called on sooner.

Post 6 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second cleverly. Sir Vassar beat the flag two lengths. He ran wide in stretch and seemed to sulk. Madeline came with a great burst of speed, going around her horses and galloping home. Elsie D had enough at the half mile ground. Ardath showed a great improvement.

Start good. Won driving. Nautch Girl was best and finished like a really good filly. The Cad swerved all over the track at the end. Giles Shine showed a lot of speed. Caesar does better at a route and in mud. Hunt leans toward mud. He had no speed either.

Ludwig will do on the Eclipse course. Ketcham ran well and was perfectly handled. There are no excuses for him. Oceana closed fast at the end.

Winner—B. g. 4, by Jim Gore—Nannie D.
Start good. Won cleverly. Peat outclassed his field. McCafferty bought him for $2000 Thursday night. Demagogue ran a grand race. He was too much used in the first part and hung on in surprisingly game fashion at the end. Light weight enables him to stay. Cromwell quit in the last sixteenth after loosing up prominently. Deerslayer closed strong. Dolando quit badly after a fast half and pulled up lame. Throw out this race. Lobengula is going back. Thomas Cat ran a fine race. He was short. He will about do the next, if the field is not too high of class.
Scratched—Hugh Penny, 103; Ramiro II, 106; Salvable, 110; Robert Bonner, 95.

Start good. Won cleverly. Flax Spinner showed gameness and her staying qualities were best. Sly Fox, under vigorous handling, ran his race and finished strong. Maximo Gomez was too much used, yet hung on gamely. Hampden is not what he was. He quit badly last furlong. Gawain and Disdain showed much speed. Philip is of no account.
Scratched—San Antonio, 114; Dacian, 114; Oxnard, 109; Ortolan, 108; Glonoine, 111.
